ABOUT THE PIONEERS

The NASW Social Work Pioneer® Program was created to honor members of the social work profession who have contributed to the evolution and enrichment of the profession. The Pioneer Program identifies and recognizes individuals whose unique dedication, commitment, and determination have improved social and human conditions.

Pioneers are role models for future generations of social workers. Their contributions are reflected in every aspect of the profession, as well as in the establishment of social policies and human services programs. They have accomplished this through practice, teaching, writing, research, program development, administration, advocacy, legislation, and election to public office.

THANK YOU TO EVERYONE WHO HAS SUPPORTED THE LEGACY PROJECT AND PIONEER PROGRAM THROUGH YOUR TIME, TALENT, AND TREASURE

Many of you have supported the other Foundation programs, and for that we are truly grateful.

RONALD W. MANDERSCHIED, PhD

Dr. Ronald Manderscheid's career spans the public, private, and academic sectors. He has served in numerous leadership roles at the National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH) and at the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA)—both components of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS).

He served for many years on the faculty of the University of Maryland where he taught statistics, sociology, and social organization. He currently is the Executive Director of the National Association of County Behavioral Health and Developmental Disability Directors and is an Adjunct Professor in the Department of Mental Health at the Johns Hopkins University Bloomberg School of Public Health.

While at NIMH, Dr. Manderscheid served as a researcher in the Biopsychosocial Research Program, where he had the opportunity to collaborate with Dr. Julius Axelrod, a prominent Nobel Laureate in brain chemistry. He also served as chief of evaluation research and as a founding chief of the mental health services grant and intramural research program. At SAMHSA, Dr. Manderscheid led the national mental health statistics and informatics programs as well as efforts to integrate mental health and substance use care services with primary care, and to develop a national training agenda for the mental health field. He also served on the Clinton Health Care Reform Taskforce, and as a Senior Policy Advisor on Health Care Reform in the Office of the U.S. Assistant Secretary for Health.

Dr. Manderscheid's life-long interests in mental health encompass policy, research, and services. He is known both nationally and internationally throughout the mental health field as a leader who works with all groups to advance mental health research, care, and the well-being of mental health consumers in the community. He is particularly noted for his work with the consumer and family communities and for introducing consumer participation in federal workgroups and consumer assessments of the mental health care. Such assessments are now commonplace in the field.

For 25 years, Dr. Manderscheid led the National Reporting Program on Mental Health Statistics and the Mental Health Statistics Improvement Program. He was an early supporter of consumer satisfaction surveys, electronic records and informatics. Dr. Manderscheid has received many awards for his professional work including multiple distinguished service awards from the Secretaries of HHS and the Administrators of SAMHSA. He has also received lifetime achievement awards from the American College of Mental Health Administration, NASMHPD, and NCCBH, as well as public service awards from the Mental Health Section of the American Public Health Association; the Federal Executive Institute Alumni Association; his undergraduate institution, Loras College; and the American Association for Psychosocial Rehabilitation, among others. Dr. Manderscheid is a Life Fellow of the Washington Academy of Sciences and the International Academy of Art and Science.

Today, Dr. Manderscheid continues to be an advocate for mental health and substance use care consumers and is leading efforts to reform mental health and substance use care benefits in Medicare, Medicaid, and private insurance.

Dr. Manderscheid was the recipient of the 2009 NASW Foundation Knee/Wittman Outstanding Achievement in Health & Mental Health Policy Award.
